THE PROTECTION OF COMPETITION LAW
(LAW 207 OF 1989)

Order made by virtue of section 5(2)

The Council of Ministers, in the exercise of its powers conferred upon it by virtue of subsection (2) of section 5 of the Protection of Competition Law of 1989, makes this Order.

207/89.

1. This Order shall be cited as the Block Exemptions (Agreements, Decisions and Concerted Practices in relation to the Production or Trade in Agricultural Products) Order of 1998.

Short title.

2. The provisions of this Order shall apply, without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 3, in the agreements, decisions or concerted practices in relation to the production or trade in agricultural products which are listed in the Annex.

Scope of application of the Order.

3.-(1) According to subsection (1) of section 5 of the Law and without prejudice to the preconditions provided for in this Order, the agreements, decisions and concerted practices referred to in the previous paragraph and which are necessary for the accomplishment of the objectives referred to in subparagraph (2) are exempted from the prohibition of section 4(1) of the Law. Especially, the agreements, decisions and concerted practices of farmers, associations of farmers or associations of such associations shall be exempted to the extent that, without involving the obligation to charge identical prices, they concern the production or sale of agricultural products or the use of joint facilities for the storage, treatment or processing agricultural products, unless the Commission finds that competition is thereby excluded or that the objectives of subparagraph (2) are Exemption for the agreements concerning agricultural products.

(2) The objectives mentioned in subparagraph (1) are-

- (a) to increase agricultural productivity by promoting technical progress and by ensuring the rational development of agricultural production and the optimum utilisation of the factors of production, in particular labour;
- (b) thus to ensure a fair standard of living for the agricultural population, in particular by increasing the individual earnings of persons engaged in agriculture;
- (c) to stabilize markets;
- (d) to secure the availability of supplies;
- (e) to ensure that supplies reach consumers at reasonable prices.

(3) The Commission, after hearing the opinion of undertakings or associations of undertakings concerned, as well as every other natural or legal person, whose hearing is considered necessary, shall have exclusive power to determine, by its decision published in the Official Gazette of the Republic, which agreements, decisions and concerted practices fulfil the conditions provided for in subparagraphs (1) and (2).

(4) The Commission shall undertake such determination either on its own initiative or at the request of an interested undertaking or association of undertakings.

(5) The publication, according to subparagraph (3), shall state the names of the parties, the main content of the decision and shall have regard to the legitimate interest of undertakings in the protection of their business secrets.
